

Boxplot of counts of tampered cases needed to reach statistical significance

White gaps represent medians, colored bars represent interquartile range, whiskers represent range

Boxplot of proportions of tampered cases needed to reach statistical significance

White gaps represent medians, colored bars represent interquartile range, whiskers represent range

